

JAMES R. RICKABAUGH

4645 N. Cramer Street
Whitefish Bay, WI 53211

Education

Ph.D.	1982-86	Univ. of Wisconsin - Madison
Coursework	1978-79	Northeastern Illinois University
M. S.	1974-77	Univ. of Wisconsin - Whitewater
BA	1969-73	Milton College
		Majors: Spanish & History

Professional Experience

2000- Present	Associate, Hazard, Young, Attea & Associates, Ltd.
2000–Present	Superintendent, Whitefish Bay Schools, Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin
1997–00	President, Mid-West Region, Voyager Expanded Learning, Minnesota
1990-97	Superintendent, Independent School District 191, Burnsville, Minnesota
1986-90	Superintendent, Oconomowoc Area School District, Wisconsin
1983-86	Director of Instruction, School District of Janesville, Wisconsin
1980-83	Director, Pupil Personnel Services, School District of Janesville, Wisconsin
1979-80	Assistant Principal, Parker Senior High School, Janesville, Wisconsin
1977-79	Dean of Students, Maine North, Des Plaines, Illinois
1973-77	Teacher, Milton High School, Milton, Wisconsin

Related Professional Involvement

- Educational Research and Development Institute II, Vice-Chairman
- School Link Technologies, National Advisory Council Member
- Echalk, National Advisory Council Member
- North Shore Exceptional Education Consortium (NSEEC), Chair (2001-02)

Professional and Civic Associations

- Wisconsin Association of School District Administrators (WASDA), Member
- American Association of School Administrators (AASA), Member
- Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD), Member
- Phi Delta Kappa, Member
- North Shore Rotary Club, Member

Honors

- Named 1996 Minnesota Superintendent of the Year
- Awarded Crystal Apple for Outstanding Service and Leadership by Viking Council Boy Scouts of America, 1996
- Community Service Award, Dakota County Community Action Council 1996
- Received the Master Teacher Award for Outstanding Educational Leadership, 1994
- Selected as the Eminent Miltonean by the Alumni Association of Milton College, 1988
- The 1988 Executive Educator 100 -- Selected by The Executive Educator Magazine, as one of the 100 young educational leaders to watch in the nation, 1988